

Faeries Scrapbook Page

Glitter:

- Ultrafine opaque glitter: black
- Ultrafine transparent glitter: pink, yellow, green, purple

Materials:

- 24" decorative flower ribbon
- Assorted photographs, large and small
- Baker's parchment paper
- Circle templates or stencils
- Designer Dries Clear adhesive with metal tip attached
- Fantasy Film: 6" of Spring Morning
- Iron
- Scissors: fine cutting, decorative edge
- Scrapbook paper: 2 shades of monochromatic green
- Stamp: dragonfly
- Stamp pad: black
- Xyron machine

Instructions:

Cut 3 photos to 6", 4" and 3" circles. Closely cut two full figure photos. Using deckle edge scissors cut circles out of dark green paper 1/4" wider than the 3 photos.

Glue or Xyron photos to circle borders. Adhere photos to light or medium green scrapbook page, positioned as shown. Glue two figures, one on each side of large circle photo as shown.

Make film dragonfly:

Cut Spring Morning Fantasy Film into two 3" x 4" pieces. Ink stamp with black permanent ink. Place film on top of stamp. Without moving film, cover with baker's parchment paper. Press firmly with iron at medium setting for approximately five seconds. Carefully peel off impressed image.

Apply glue and sprinkle with green and yellow glitter on film dragonfly's body, and highlight wings as desired. When dry, cut out dragonfly and bend up wings. Glue body and lower wings in between circle photos as shown. Bend up upper wings. Draw antennae in glue on the scrapbook page and glitter black.

Make glue dots all around edges of the 3 circle photos and glitter in green, yellow and purple. Work in three-inch sections at a time to make sure glue doesn't begin to dry.

Cut two 12" sections of ribbon. Glue ribbon to top and bottom edges of page. Glue and glitter pink dots in the centers of every other flower on the ribbon.
